

God's Grace Is Faithful, Not Fickle

When God calls a man, He does not repent of it. God does not, as many friends do: love one day – and hate another; or as princes, who make their subjects favorites, and afterwards throw them into prison. This is the blessedness of a saint – his condition admits of no alteration. God's call is founded upon His decree – and His decree is immutable. Acts of grace cannot be reversed. God blots out His people's sins – but not their names.

Thomas Watson