

The Best Sermons

The best sermons are the sermons which are most full of Christ.

A sermon without Christ . . .

it is an awful, a horrible thing;

it is an empty well;

it is a cloud without rain;

it is a tree twice dead, plucked by the roots.

It is an abominable thing to give men stones for bread, and scorpions for eggs, and yet they do so who preach not Jesus.

A sermon without Christ! As well talk of a loaf of bread without any flour in it. How can it feed the soul?

Men die and perish because Christ is not there, and yet His glorious gospel is the easiest thing to preach, and the sweetest thing to preach; there is most variety in it, there is more attractiveness in it than in all the world besides!

-C.H Spurgeon
